BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF GREATER WASHINGTON UNVEILS NEW COMMUNITY AND READING ROOM

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington (BGCGW) invites the community to a ribbon cutting ceremony unveiling the new community and reading rooms at The Richard England Clubhouse 14 in Washington, D.C. Sponsored by the Lois and Richard England Family Foundation, the rooms will provide more 400 Club members with access to a literacy-enriched environment to develop their reading skills and promote leisure reading as a way of unlocking their full potential. The reading and community rooms will serve not only Club members, but their families as well providing access to educational resources and technology. The ribbon cutting will honor its former President & CEO, Pandit Wright. Wright served BGCGW for over 17 years; first as a board member and, then, as President & CEO.

Where: Richard England Clubhouse 14
4103 Benning Road NE
Washington, D.C.

When: Sept. 8 from 6 to 7 p.m.

About Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington

The mission of Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington is to help boys and girls of all backgrounds, especially those who need us most, build confidence, develop character and acquire the skills needed to become productive, civic-minded, responsible adults. BGCGW serves nearly 14,000 youth annually in the District of Columbia, Maryland and Northern Virginia. For more information, visit us <http://www.bgcgw.org/>.

The England Family Foundation

The England Family Foundation is a private family foundation funded by the generosity of Richard and Lois England. Based in Washington, D.C., the Foundation is driven by the Englands' desire to improve their community, as well as to support other U.S. and international organizations. Since its inception, the Foundation has awarded more than $10 million in grants.
